CONTENTS

Jana Skladaná: Slovak language usage in the environment of the middle and lower nobility in Slovakia in the pre-literary language period ................................................................. 3

Martin Holý: The lower nobility from the Czech lands on their journeys to gain education and its tutors .......................................................................................................................... 9

Peter Keresteš: (Legal) education in the life of county officials in the 16th and 17th century (on example of notaries and vice county administrators of Nitra County) ......................... 28

Radoslav Ragač: The county nobility and school sponsorship. Some examples from Zvolen County ................................................................................................................. 37

Jana Šulcová: The lower nobility and nobilitated burghers as officials in service of Bratislava Castle, the Hungarian Chamber and Pavol Pálfi ........................................................................ 46

Veronika Nováková: The education of the Bratislava County nobility in home and foreign universities, colleges and higher education institutions from the 16th century to the year 1848 ........................................................................................................... 56

Klára Komorová: The literary sponsorship of Turiec yeomen ................................................................................................................................................................. 72

Gabriela Žibritová: The nobility sponsorship while book publishing in the 16th-17th century ................................................................................................................................. 83

Eva Augustínová: The literary activity and sponsorship of Turiec yeomen in the 18th and 19th century ......................................................................................................................... 89

Eva Frimmová: The humanist Eliáš Berger in service of the Habsburgs ............................................................................................................................................................................ 100

Viliam Čičaj: The noble library .................................................................................................................................................................................................................. 116

Andrej Szeghy: The confiscated Prešov library and property of the Keczers (Andrej and Gabriel) by the late 1680s ................................................................................................................... 123

Helena Saktorová: The earliest prints in the libraries of the lower nobility in Turiec region ...................................................................................................................................................... 138

Ľubomír Jankovič: Manuscript, graphic bookplates and supralibros in the yeoman’s environment of Liptov, Turiec, Orava, Považie, Poniťrie and Pohronie regions ............... 148
Katarína Chmelínová: Arts sponsorship by the middle and lower nobility in the Baroque period. Anton Körmendy and the Loretan chapel in Kremnica ........................................ 165

Miloš Kovačka: The Jesenský family in spiritual, cultural and political history ...................... 185

Ivan Mrva: From Slavism to Hungarism. The ethnic context of the Slovak nobility .............. 206

Ľuboš Kačírek: Attempts of the New School to win the nobility for the Slovak national movement (1868 – 1875) ......................................................................................... 225

Ferdinand Vrábel: Just „a dry sprig“? Slovak national revivalists as children's tutors in noble families........................................................................................................................ 243

Adelaida Mezeiová: The character of a yeoman in the Slovak historical prose of the 19th and 20th century............................................................................................................. 257

Miloš Dudáš: Articular churches in Orava region in a new context ........................................ 264

Barbora Pekariková, Michala Sedláčková: Yeoman monuments in the collections of the Slovak National Museum in Martin .................................................................................... 281

Kristína Zvedelová: The characteristics of modern mansions of the middle nobility in Turiec region on example of homes belonging to the Just family of Necpaly.................. 299

Jozef Beňovský: The reflection of the nobility in book illustrations and literature............... 333

Vladimír Petrovič: The Kakus family of Ráztoky in the light of archival and registry sources................................................................................................................................. 351

Júlia Hautová: The descendants of Maurice Benyovszky and the Platy family .................... 375

Mišo A. Kováč: A presentation of the videoessay Turiec yeomen nowadays...................... 381

Index .................................................................................................................................................. 393